This list of references was originally compiled from a 900 page version of the text that became the 600 page doctoral dissertation, Ghost Dancing at the Supreme Court of Canada, successfully defended at the Université de Montréal in 2008. The work was distilled for publication and references for updates were added.

Titles have not been edited by UBC Press to fit its house style. Capitalization appears as presented in the version of the work read by the author and any errors, omissions or typos are the responsibility of the author.

The content of some internet addresses may have been altered and some may no longer work, but the references may usually be found by using Google to find the title.
